

Dear Igor Maria Vitalij -

Some people bring joy wherever they go - they brighten the lives of people they know. Their words are so cheerful and reassuring.
The Holidays bring to my mind,
so many many ways you are so very special - - - -

These are my wishes for you - - all the wonderful possibilities this coming New Year has to offer

Many things to smile about.

Flowers in every part of your lives.

To live for the glories of each day.

Many things to smile about

any time that is not spent on love is wasted = Honesty before glory -

Times of peace and miracles to come -
